

We are organising a coach to go to the Christmas Festivities at Blenheim Palace to get us into the Christmas Spirit on WEDNESDAY 27TH NOVEMBER.

We would leave Kington Langley Village Hall at 11:00 am and leave Blenheim Palace about 6:30. First trail in the evening is 4:15pm so that would allow for you to walk the trail and then a comfort break before we leave.

Parking will be in the KLVH hall carpark. We welcome members, family and friends to join us in a Christmas outing.

Booking the Coach: As you can imagine it is expensive and so TASKL would be charging £17:50 for the coach via Ticket Tailor. Please go to the link below and book your coach ticket

Ticket Tailor link: <https://www.tickettailor.com/events/theartssocietykingtonlangley1/1372295>

Some of you have Annual passes from your last visit to the fashion show at Blenheim so you have free access to the house until 4:00pm. However, you still need to book. You will also get £1 off your trail tickets. The journey from the hall to Blenheim Palace is about two hours so bear this in mind when booking the house visit.

Booking for events at Blenheim Place:

Go to the following website - <https://tickets.blenheimpalace.com/shows/Show.aspx?sh=BLXMAS24> to see prices and available times of the trail and house and organise your tickets accordingly.

There is, as you can see below a plethora of exciting things to do - from afternoon tea, to skating, fairground rides, shopping.

Once I have booked the coach it is confirmed and I will have to pay for it! so I would be happy if you could book your seats asap certainly by the meeting 1st October
